STEFAN KÖNNECKE, CEO.

With 20 years of experience at Deutsche Bank, many years in the capital-/real estate market and with a team of 90 years of experience in dealing with the individual needs of wealthy clients, we know exactly how to use our detailed capital market knowledge to sell the assets of our clients.

OUR COMPANY'S FOCUS

Establishment of solid structures with a clear focus on the interests of our clients finding the right buyer for their assets.

We provide special solutions for difficult-to-sell large portfolios by using capital market structuring and serving various pension funds.

We look for investment companies that ally with capital providers and can support significantly higher purchase prices through strong creditworthiness and long maturities.

With a sophisticated concept for large investors, taking into account their investment criteria, we create special concepts to sell large assets.

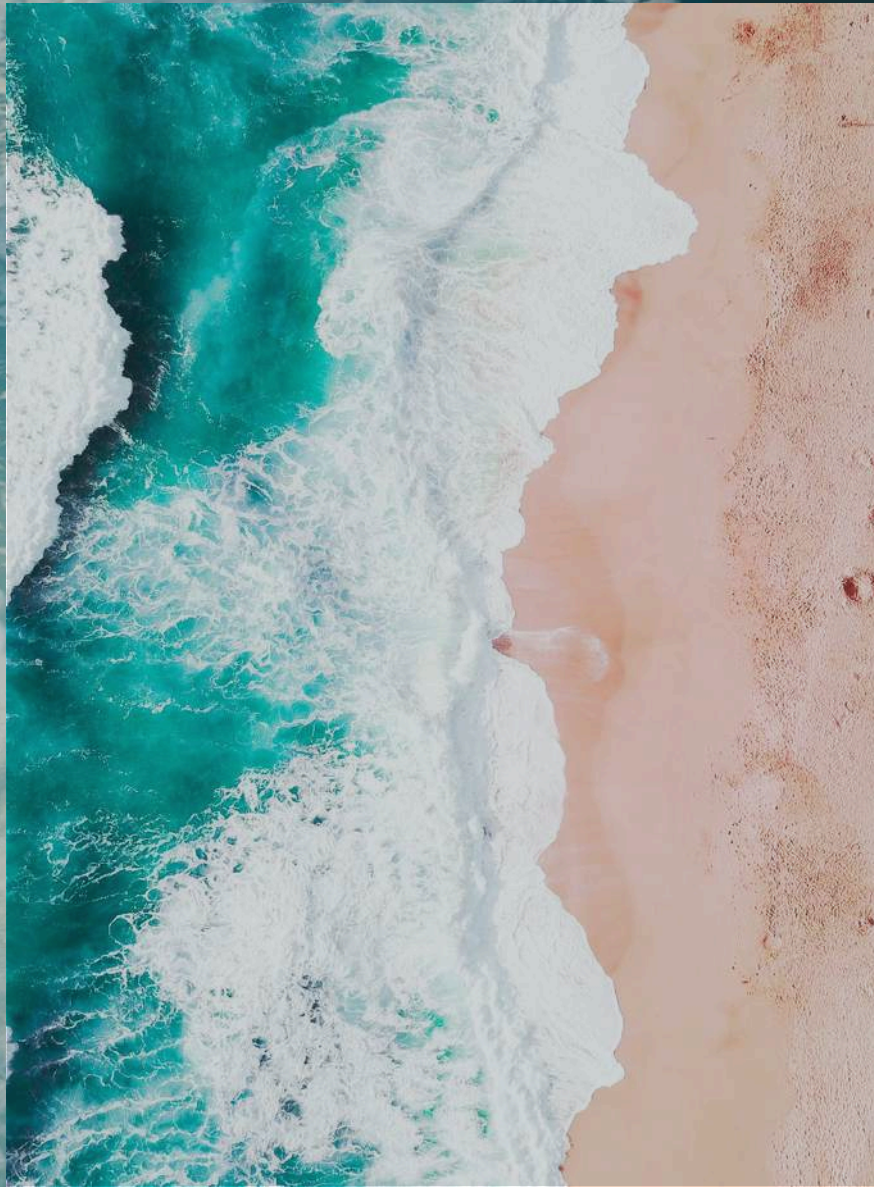

We offer concrete solutions and our contact book includes all major market participants, as well as individual wealthy individuals who can make selected transactions.
